

NATIONAL STUDENT LOAN DATA SYSTEM (NSLDS)

Students and/or parents who enter into an agreement regarding a Title IV loan are advised that the loan information will be submitted to the National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS), and will be accessible by guaranty agencies, lenders, and schools determined to be authorized users of the data system.

The National Student Loan Data System (NSLDS) is the U.S. Department of Education's central database for student aid. NSLDS receives data from schools, guaranty agencies, the Direct Loan program, and other Department of ED programs.

NSLDS Student Access provides a centralized, integrated view of Title IV loans and grants so that recipients of Title IV Aid can access and inquire about their Title IV loans and/or grant data. Students and/or parents can access their personal loan/grant information at www.nsls.ed.gov.
